THE SUMNER OBSEQUIES.

In the Senate Chamber at Washington—In Faneuil Hall at Boston—Popular Demonstrations of Love and Respect Along the Route

WASHINGTON March 14.—The body of Senator Sumner has been taken to Boston for interment. The proceedings in the Senate yesterday were of the most solemn and imposing character. The remains were taken by the Sergeant at Arms of the Senate by a special train. The funeral takes place on Monday from the State House.

BOSTON March 14.—The committee in charge of the body of Senator Sumner arrived at 9 o'clock this evening. Ten thousand people were at the depot. At Springfield and Worcester immense crowds stood at the depots as the train passed. The body was conveyed to the State House and deposited in Doric Hall, where the State [illegible] will act as a guard of honor.

BOSTON March 14.—Faneuil Hall has seldom been the scene of a more popular demonstration of love and respect to exceed the one exhibited to-day. An hour and a half before the exercises commenced ladies were admitted to the balconies, which were thrown open to the public. The hall was filled to its utmost capacity and was elaborately draped. On the platform was Vice President Wilson and a large number of distinguished men. Opposite the platform was a portrait of the late Senator with the date of his birth and death. Mayor Cobb presided and the Vice Presidents were Wendell Phillips, [illegible] Richard H Dana, B R Curtis, [illegible] Bartlett and Wm Lloyd Garrison. The services were commenced by reading from the manuscript of Sumner's eulogy on President Lincoln, followed by prayer by Rev Dr Lathrop. Richard H Dana then addressed the meeting and offered a series of resolutions which were adopted. Addresses were also made by J R Smith, R N Rice, Rev E E Hale, ex Mayor Gaston, Ralph Waldo Emerson, [illegible] Banks and others. Governor Washburn requests the officials of the cities and towns throughout the commonwealth to make provision for a recognition of the hour named for the funeral—at [illegible] o'clock Monday—by tolling bells and such services as they may deem appropriate.

Progress of the Temperance Crusade in Various Places.

[illegible] (Ind.) March 14.—Fifty crusaders paraded the streets, visited saloons and prayed, but [illegible] this afternoon. No result was evident. Ministers have been summoned from adjoining [illegible]. The Mayor was asked to prohibit the bands blocking the pavements, but he said he had no authority to suppress assemblages of that kind. Mrs. Mordaunt claims that the question is two [illegible], and she will lecture against the crusaders on Tuesday next.

NEW YORK, March 14.—News from Havana states a train from Neuvitas with volunteers was [illegible] by insurgents. Twenty seven volunteers killed and a large number wounded.

Acquittal of Woodhull and Claflin—Pointed Remarks by Judge Sutherland.

NEW YORK March 14.—The jury in the Challis suit against Woodhull and Claflin to-day rendered a verdict of not guilty. Judge Sutherland characterized the verdict as one of the most outrageous he had ever heard.

WASHINGTON CITY.

Launch of the Largest American Steamer Afloat.

[illegible] March 13.—On Wednesday next the Pacific Mail Steamship Company's new steamer [illegible] will be launched at Chester, Pa. President [illegible] and his Cabinet, Senators, Representatives and a number of prominent gentlemen from the Pacific Coast have been invited to witness the launch. A special train will leave here with excursionists. The City of Pekin will be, next to the Great Eastern, the largest steamer in the world, [illegible] tons burden, and built entirely of American material. It was proposed to launch the vessel Saturday, a more convenient day for Congressmen, but owing to the size of the vessel it was [illegible] necessary to take advantage of the high tide. This is the first of the new line of large steamers of the company. Another of the same class will be launched in about thirty days.

Illness of Senator Boutwell.

WASHINGTON March 14.—Senator Boutwell walked out to-day. He expects to take his seat in the Senate Tuesday.

Judge Lewis Dent at the Point of Death.

Judge Lewis Dent, brother of Mrs Grant, is lying at the point of death at his residence here. Cause cancer in the stomach.

Senator Stewart and His Gorgeous Pagoda.

The appointment of Senator Stewart to the Chairmanship of the select committee to investigate the charges of fraud in the District of Columbia Board of Public Works excites much adverse comment. Senator Stewart's real estate has been largely ex[illegible] by local improvements in which fraud is charged, and Stewart has recently prejudiced the case by his remarks in the Senate.

Condition of the Bankrupt Bill.

The House Judiciary Committee non concurring in the Senate's amendments to the Bankrupt bill, [illegible] remodelling it in such a way that it is hoped the two Houses will be brought to an agreement.

The San Francisco Postmastership.

WASHINGTON, March 14.—Senator Jones, at the request of Clayton, will move in the Postal Committee that the President be requested to transmit all letters urging Stone's retention. Clayton, Hager will go before the committee and testify [illegible] public sentiment in San Francisco has undergone no change. Sargent supports Coey.

Committee on Commerce steadily refuses to [illegible] any proposition for river and harbor improvement not contained in the revised estimates of the Engineers' Department. These do not include [illegible] Antonio creek appropriation.

BY ATLANTIC CABLE.

LONDON March 13.—Viscount Landon was to-day elected to Parliament from Liverpool.

Cost of Convicting the Bidwell Forgers.

The regular half yearly meeting of the Directors of the Bank of England it was announced that the expense incurred in the pursuit and prosecution of the two Bidwells and McDonald, the parties who committed frauds on the Bank, was $[illegible] 000.

LONDON March 13.—Disraeli has issued an address to his constituents asking once more for their suffrages. He proposes to defend the rights of all [illegible].

Imperialists from all parts of France have arrived or are on their way to England to attend festivities at Chiselhurst on Monday, on the occasion of Prince Louis attaining his majority.

Proposal in the French Assembly to Disfranchise the Colonies.

PARIS March 13.—In the Committee of the Assembly on Electoral Law a proposition has been made [illegible] the right for the disfranchisement of the colonies of France. Laboulaye made an earnest remonstrance, [illegible] members that the British colonies of America had been alienated from the mother country by a denial of the right of representation. Colonial deputies have unanimously demanded that right.

Illness of Prince Bismarck.

BERLIN, March 13.—Prince Bismarck is ill, suffering from a recurrence of gout.

CANADA.

A Remarkable Robbery

WOODSTOCK, March 13.—Burglars entered the office of the Woodbridge Agricultural Implement and Machine Works, blew open the safe, took the contents, fired the building and escaped. Total loss $20,000. One hundred men are thrown out of employment.

Mr Buford, who has just returned from Eastern Oregon to Salem, contradicts many of the reports concerning the loss of stock in that portion of the State during the winter, and particularly in reference to Wasco county. He says that stock as a general thing, both cattle and sheep, has wintered uncommonly well and are in excellent condition now. Generally, he says, losses have occurred through neglect of owners, though some few have met with losses which could not be averted, from exposure and disease. In the Palouse country, Mr Buford says, large numbers have died, but it was owing to the fact that immigrants had come in there with stock at so late a day that they had no time to prepare food for the winter. He cites one case in Klickitat valley of a band of 3,000 sheep, out of which only one was lost during the winter, and says this was the general good luck of stock-raisers in that valley. He thinks that stock on all ranges in these sections, with few exceptions, has come out of the past winter in better condition than was the case last spring.

Dr McKay informs the Pendleton Tribune that he will start below in a few days, taking with him his brother Capt Donald McKay and twelve Warm Spring Indian scouts, also the celebrated mountaineer and trapper Joe Meek. Among the Indians are Cap [illegible] and A-wen-a-chat, who captured Capt. Jack after he left the Lava Beds. It is the intention of the Doctor to start on a tour of the States with his company some time next month, making their debut at San Francisco. It is his design to deliver a lecture at each of the entertainments or exhibitions, and as he is a regularly educated physician and speaks the English language fluently we have no doubt his lectures will be interesting and entertaining.

CALIFORNIA

From San Francisco

SAN FRANCISCO March 14.—Outward passenger, [illegible] Moody, Oregon.

SAN FRANCISCO March 14.—A meeting of retail grocers was held last night at which bitter speeches were made against the ladies' temperance movement, and resolutions adopted to organize for vigorous opposition to it and to the passage of the proposed ordinance by the Board of Supervisors discriminating against their [illegible].

Colored citizens held a meeting last night and passed appropriate resolutions of condolence on the death of Charles Sumner. Their churches will be draped in mourning for thirty days, and the people will wear crape on their arms for the same period.

Greenbacks 89[illegible] 90.

SAN FRANCISCO March 14.—Professor Gilman, President of the University of California, lectures to-night on "Deep Sea Soundings."

The Fountain Convention held its regular meeting to-night. It was agreed to solicit the Legislature for $3,000 a year. The fountains, which are to be attached to the iron lamp posts, will cost thirty dollars each. It is proposed to erect one hundred in various parts of the city.

SAN FRANCISCO March 15.—The day has been fair and pleasant, but to-night it is again raining.

The Panama steamer, due to-day, has not yet arrived. The only arrivals during the day have been a few coasters.

The only arrest of consequence made to-day was that of Theodore Tyler for having broken into a dwelling house on Chestnut street last night.

There were eighty five deaths in this city last week, seven being from scarlatina.

The Board of Supervisors will probably take some action to-morrow night on the petition of the temperance women against grocers who sell liquors. The latter are anxious to know what is to be the fate of the measure.

Interior California

SACRAMENTO March 14.—John Whitlaw, engineer of the Phœnix Mills, Thirteenth and J streets, while removing the millstones this morning fell and fractured two ribs.

The Sixth District Court to-day annulled the marriage of H. S. Ryan and Fannie L. Ryan on account of fraud—the lady having represented herself to be a widow, whereas she had never been married.

It is rumored the steamer S. M. Whipple has been sold to the railroad company.

OAKLAND Cal, March 14.—A mass meeting was held to-night in Brayton Hall by the citizens of Oakland to discuss the conduct of Senator Gibbons in compromising the relocation of county buildings on the square near Tubb's Hotel, East Oakland, instead of the Broadway plazas which were donated by the city. The Oakland people want the county seat in Oakland proper, and will not be satisfied until it is moved there.

PLEASANTON March 15.—Rev. Father Estrague of the Mission San Jose, while on his way here this morning, came near losing his life in Alameda creek. He found a team stuck in the water, and while trying to pass it his horse stumbled and fell. The horse got out all right, but the reverend gentleman was taken down stream a considerable distance and saved his life by swimming ashore.

NEVADA.

Landslide in Nevada.

GOLD HILL, March 14.—An immense land slide occurred last night on the Virginia and Truckee Railroad, a short distance below Tyler mine at American Flat. The slide was 80 feet in length, 30 feet in width and 25 feet in depth. The heavy pressure on the track forced it up to a position nearly at right angles to the one originally occupied. At the point where the slide occurred there is a sharp curve in the road, and the engineer of the first western bound train, composed of cars loaded with ore, which left here at 6 o'clock this morning, being unable to see the obstruction on the track, ran into it. The conductor jumped off the locomotive before it struck the slide, but the engineer and fireman remained in the cab. The locomotive and tender fell over sideways and was half buried up with dirt. No one was injured. One ore car was wrecked and three others jumped the track. Passengers arriving from Reno and different points were transferred to trains on this side. They expect to have it open by morning. Nearly all the locomotives on the road are draped in mourning in respect to the memory of Harry Shreeve.

Accident on the Central Pacific.

ELKO March 14.—The west bound passenger train No 2, consisting of a mail, express and baggage car and one sleeper, two first class coaches and an emigrant car, met with quite a serious accident this morning, when about ten miles west of Osino. The accident occurred on an embankment about thirty feet high. The train was one hour late, and running at the usual speed, when suddenly a rail broke and precipitated the hind coach and emigrant car down the embankment. The coach was filled with passengers and turned completely over, and now lies upside down. The emigrant car, which was in the rear, was thrown violently down the grade, but maintained its equilibrium. The forward coach and sleeper was also thrown from the track, but did not go down the embankment. The following is the list of injured obtained by a special reporter sent to the scene of the disaster: Jas Dick, Colorado Springs, Col, slight cut in right shoulder, bruised; was in the next to the rear coach. Benj C[illegible], of Providence R I, deep cut in forehead, not dangerous; was in the emigrant car. Mrs Wm Roe, from Dundas county, Canada, seriously injured about the head, right arm and side fractured, shows signs of internal injury, considered somewhat doubtful. Several others sustained slight injuries, but none of a serious character. The accident was a most fortunate affair in its results, as railroad men consider the escape of so great a number uninjured from the coach that was so violently thrown down the embankment bottom upwards as almost miraculous. The heavy snow, however, in the vicinity of the disaster probably accounts for the number uninjured. The wounded, with one exception, that being Mrs Wm Roe, will be able to proceed to their destinations. The engine, mail, express and baggage cars passed over the broken rail and felt nothing of it, showing clearly that the rail broke while the train was passing over it. Every provision has been made by the company for those who sustained any injuries. The snow along the road between Wells and Toano is very deep, and a slight addition, accompanied by high wind, is liable to produce a recurrence of the late blockades at any time.

BY STATE TELEGRAPH.

Meeting of the Benton County Democratic Convention

CORVALLIS March 14.—The Democratic County Convention met here to-day and nominated the following persons to attend the State Convention to be held in Albany next week: [illegible] M Shaun, [illegible] D. Carlisle, J. H. [illegible], [illegible] Markey, [illegible] Baldwin, B. P[illegible]. Nothing further was done. The Convention adjourned to meet again on the [illegible]th of April.

The [illegible] Herald learns [illegible] that the schooner [illegible] was wrecked on the bar on Thursday, the 5th inst. The particulars are as follows: On the day mentioned the [illegible] went out over the bar, but the sea was so rough that she was impelled to return, and when she returned whistled as a signal to the vessels on the outside. As the wind was fair the captain of the schooner undertook to sail in, and had got about half way across when the wind died out and she began to drift, soon striking bottom, and was beached on the North Spit, where she now lies, supposed to be a total wreck. No lives were lost. She is the property of D Beaddle & Co, San Francisco, and valued at about $5,000.

INDEPENDENT CHAMPIONS RED CROSS

SEMI-ANNUAL SESSION OF THE GRAND ENCAMPMENT

We are in receipt of the proceedings of the semi-annual session of the Grand Encampment of the Independent Champions of the Red Cross, held at Salem on the 11th and 12th inst. On the

First Day

the Grand Encampment I. O. C. R. C. was called to order by Grand Commander C. L. Burrows.

Appointments pro tem were made as follows: Grand Secretary, Comp. W. H. Dodd; Grand C. of H., Comp. A. Wesel.

Report of the Committee on Credentials was read and adopted.

Committee on Order of Business reported, submitting a form, which was adopted.

Vacancies in office were filled by election, making the list of Grand Officers as follows: Grand Commander, C. L. Burrows; Grand Counselor, L. Vinyard; Grand Secretary, J. J. Smith; Grand Treasurer, Mrs H. Bowker; Grand C. of H., C. A. Stewart; Grand S., Mrs. Stearns; Grand [illegible], L. H. Geer; Grand M. of C., Mrs. Godley; Grand Chaplain, — Jones; Grand Sent., J. Bewley.

The Grand Secretary appeared and took his seat.

Comp. McDougall, Supreme Counselor, offered a communication relative to the reports about himself, and asked that it be referred to a special committee for consideration. On motion it was filed and laid over until the degree work should be exemplified.

The Grand Encampment took a recess till 1 o'clock P M.

The Grand Secretary requested leave to be absent from the remainder of the session.

Motion made and seconded that the request be granted: this motion was laid on the table.

The communication of Comp. McDougall was taken up, read and referred to a special committee of five, consisting of Comps. Vinyard, Case, Holder, Bewley and Dodd.

Grand Encampment took a recess till 7 o'clock P M.

EVENING SESSION

The Grand Encampment was called to order by the Grand Commander, and proceeded to work in the degree of the Red Cross.

The special committee on the communication of Comp. McDougall announced their readiness to report, which report was read, and on motion made the special order for 1 o'clock P M, March 12th.

Grand Encampment took a recess till 8 o'clock A M, March 12th.

Second Day.

The Grand Encampment was called to order by Comp. Burrows, Grand Commander.

On motion the Grand Commander was instructed to incorporate this Grand Body.

On motion the report of the committee on the communication of Comp. McDougall was taken up, read, amended and unanimously adopted.

[We omit the report, but it fully vindicates Mr A C McDougall in his defense against the charge brought against him in a summons to appear before a committee appointed by Nonpareil Lodge I. O. G. T. to answer a charge of violating article 2, Constitution of Good Templars.]

The Committee on Good of the Order becoming vacant by resignation, it was filled by the appointment of Companions Sites, Sawyer and Holder.

On motion the Grand Encampment proceeded to select the place of holding the annual session of this body. The election resulted in the choice of Salem. Time fixed by the Constitution, first Tuesday in May.

The Grand Secretary was authorized to give such part of the proceedings as he might deem proper to the public press.

The Committee on Good of the Order made the following report, which was unanimously adopted:

It is a pleasure to your committee to note the progress of our Order. We find a growing desire on the part of the public everywhere to know more in relation to our work.

Fourteen Encampments now exist in this jurisdiction with a fine membership, and east of the Blue mountains, by late advices, the number of members in that jurisdiction is placed at one thousand two hundred, and constantly increasing.

At Silver City and vicinity, the I. C. R. C. number two hundred and fifty—meeting in their own hall, built at a cost of over $1,000.

The organizing officers now have calls to go to many parts of the State, and at no distant day the order of I. C. R. C. will become a power in this State. And while we labor hard to build up this institution, we will extend the warm hand of true fellowship to all temperance societies of whatever name, wishing only the success of the temperance cause and the suppression of the accursed rum traffic in our beloved country.

We extend our warmest sympathies to the noble women who by their prayers and tears in the West are laboring for the overthrow of the most unmitigated curse that ever afflicted a down trodden and sin-cursed race, and bid them God speed in their benevolent and heavenly work.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

F. K. SITES
H. M. HOLDER
JOSEPH SAWYER

After cheering and pleasant music the Grand Encampment adjourned.

CHAS. L. BURROWS,
Grand Commander
J. P. [illegible], Grand Secretary.

GIVE ALL THEIR DUE

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN:

Several of your correspondents in discussing the extravagance of the State Government seem to place all the responsibility upon the Legislature, and never mention the State Executive in that connection. They from design or otherwise fail to call public attention to the fact that the Governor constitutes an important part of the law making power of the State, and that no legislative act can become a law without the Governor's signature or approval, unless passed over his veto by a two thirds vote in both branches of the Legislature. They also neglect to call attention to the fact that Governor Grover not only approved all the extravagant and corrupt jobbing acts of the last Legislature that have been fastened upon the people to eat up their substance, but that in his message he recommended some of the obnoxious measures, and was seconded in his recommendations by Secretary Chadwick in his biennial report. The Governor commended the building of a State Capitol, and as I understand assisted in cunningly drawing the bill so as to deceive the Legislature into the belief that it would cost only $100,000, [illegible] to appoint building commissioners that would commence a building that he knew [illegible] will cost $500,000, and that competent architects declare will cost one million of dollars. It will also be remembered that the Governor (backed by Secretary Chadwick in his report) in his message strongly urged a law creating a State Board of Equalization, and [illegible] the taxes [illegible], and Chadwick drew the bill. He appointed the Board, and [illegible] Holy Saint Patrick, what a law and what a Board!

Many other acts of the State Executive Department are equally wrong, but I will not lengthen this article to mention them at this time. The last Legislature was certainly bad enough, but at the same time justice requires that the sins of the Governor and Secretary should not be thrown upon it. And the present uprising of the people will not accomplish their desired economy and reduction of taxes unless the State Executive Department is thoroughly changed and reformed as well as the Legislature.

THE P. D. & S. L. RAILWAY

[illegible] GASTON, ESQ, AT THE RAILWAY [illegible]

A friend of the Salt Lake Railroad has furnished us the following synopsis of the remarks of J. Gaston, Esq., at the East Portland meeting last Saturday night.

Mr Gaston said—He had not come prepared to make a speech, but, upon the invitation of several citizens to do what he might be able to in forwarding the enterprise. That he had no interest in the matter more than any other citizen had in the general prosperity of the State, and while the success of Col. Chapman would add nothing to his pecuniary importance himself, it would be a great pleasure, as he gratefully remembered the labors of that gentleman when the West Side Railroad Company was struggling for existence. He deprecated the want of [illegible] which so many persons manifested, and declared his conviction that this company would succeed, and that the road would be built. He declared this [illegible] the most important enterprise in the State now offering hopes of success; showed that this road leads straight to the heart of the nation, on an air line from New York to China, and on easy levels from the Union Pacific road, free from the natural and insurmountable obstructions of snow storms and high mountains. And these were the facts of which we must convince Congress and the commercial world, and then the subsidy would be voted to build the road. Then the commerce of the Western nations would join hands with that of the Orientals in an iron highway passing through this city. That the great commercial cities of London, Paris and New York were upon one side of the earth, and Pekin, Yeddo and Calcutta were upon the opposite side, and the great problem of commerce was to find the shortest and quickest route from one to the other. That if we show this railroad to be on the long sought for route, the problem is solved and the enterprise is an assured success. He referred to the importance of the road in securing population from the East, [illegible]. He would not disparage the North Pacific road, but earnestly hoped it would succeed; but that it was very plain that the failure of Jay Cooke and the embarrassment of the road had resulted in attracting larger attention and giving still more importance to this Salt Lake project. The North Pacific Company had obtained all they asked for—the largest land grant in the world—and nothing more could be done for them.

He was in favor of the present bill in Congress because it proposed a money subsidy, which was certain and reliable aid, while a land grant on this route was of doubtful value. He had been criticised for his remarks the other night at Ankeny hall on the character of such a land grant. He intended no disparagement of the country, and would not discount any portion of our own State, but claimed that the land on the route beyond the eastern boundary of Oregon would be valueless as security for the Company's bonds; that while there was some good land beyond Snake river crossing, it was about all taken by settlers already, and could not be given to the road; that if such a grant was made by Congress, when capitalists came to examine it they could not be convinced that sage brush and alkali was good security, and would not invest, and the proffered aid would turn to ashes in our hands. He therefore opposed the idea of a land grant on this route, which would be open to question, as had that of the North Pacific Company; and if once granted, the Company would never get anything more, while the money subsidy asked for was just and reasonable, and would prove to be a measure of economy to the Government.

He appealed to the people to stand by the enterprise and work for it in season and out of season, and it would succeed. That all we could do now was to resolve and unite and petition and scatter the arguments and clamor vigorously. That the Company was very poor, and that if they even had a few thousand dollars they could not now use it, as it was well known that all members of Congress had become so honest and virtuous that it would be absolutely impossible to prevail on any of them to accept any consideration for their votes. (The audience evidently took this point to be a good joke, as it brought down the house with roars of laughter and applause.) He concluded by showing the great prosperity it would bring to the State, and his remarks were earnestly listened to and heartily applauded.

THE TERRITORIES

Judge J. S. Greene lectured at Tacoma on Friday night of last week on the subject of Public Spirit.

The Gelah is reported to have broken down, and the Ella to have gone to Port Townsend after the mails.

There are ten saloons in Vancouver where liquors are retailed at a bit a glass, besides the Sutler's store on the Government reserve.

A child four years old, son of D M Nichols, of Fayette valley, Idaho, was fatally burned by his clothes taking fire on the 18th, and died on the 20th ult.

There are only three church organizations in Vancouver—the Roman Catholic, Episcopalian and Methodist. The Catholic Church has the largest membership, the Methodist next.

The Vancouver Register has been elected by the War Department at Washington as the official paper for the publication of all U. S. Army notices required by law to be published.

There are three fire Companies in Vancouver: No 1 Hook and Ladder, No 1 Engine and No 3 Engine. The latter is a soldier Company, with quarters inside the Q. M. Department.

Quite a large quantity of U. S. Quartermaster's stores and clothing were shipped from the Depot of Supplies at Vancouver to mouth of Columbia—Fort Stevens and Cape Disappointment—on Thursday last.

N. H. Bloomfield has brought two suits before Justice Beall at Kalama against H. I. Ludlow for services as attorney in the express robbery cases. He claims $200, and will probably continue to claim it even if he should gain his suits.

The Register says Vancouver needs a City Marshal. Mr Shea, the Marshal elect, has removed to the Dalles, and is engaged in a mail contract between that city and Ochoco valley. That city has virtually been without a City Marshal for six months past.

Mr H Oliver, from Centerville, Snohomish county, informs the [illegible] that the farmers in that section are preparing to put in large crops. Double the amount of acreage will be plowed and planted of any previous year. Farmers in this county tell us the same thing. Grain looks fine and promises unusually well.

A petition, signed by Alonzo Leland and seven other citizens of North Idaho, praying that that portion of the Territory be attached to Washington Territory—also a memorial from the Legislature of Washington Territory asking for a portion of Idaho—were presented to Congress by Hon J W Nesmith and referred to the proper committee. The Delegate from Washington Territory takes no action in the matter; he is too busy hunting after more Territory. Nor do the members from Oregon.

The Olympia T[illegible] says the bark [illegible] is a complete wreck. A schooner was [illegible] to receive her [illegible]. Excepting these she is a total loss. It seems that she might be gotten off, but is not worth the effort. She was a very old vessel and small. At the time of going on the spit the sea was very rough, and the vessel jumped her foremast out, and the main and mizzen were cut away. The two seamen and cook drowned were attempting to land on the spit in a small boat. The only freight on board was a quantity of hay for Port Madison mills.

Gov Grover has remitted the fine of $30 imposed on Warren Gibson by the Circuit Court for Marion county for assault with intent to do bodily harm, on account of the great insult which provoked the crime.

Eugene City election will take place April 6th.

All the public schools in Salem were closed last Saturday. No funds.

Washington county is shipping onions to towns in the Willamette valley.

A Mrs Dalrymple of Corvallis is going to sue that corporation for damages caused by falling on a rotten sidewalk.

Henry Floyd of The Dalles was kicked nearly into the middle of next week on the 12th by a vicious horse.

Salem Fire Department [illegible] their new bell, weighing 2,800 pounds [illegible] has been returned to the makers.

Hon. John Burnett of Benton county has announced himself as an independent candidate for Judge of the Second Judicial District.

Jefferson is still engaged cultivating a fine crop of measles. Schools and churches there have been suspended for about three weeks.

The Capitol Commissioners are in session at Salem. Work on the Capitol building will commence as soon as the weather will permit.

Two men have bought about one thousand head of sheep in Benton county in the last two weeks, paying from $3 to $3 50 per head.

Billy Sacker, the mail carrier between Dallas and Alsea, reports snow three feet deep on the Alsea mountain. This is the deepest it has been this winter.

A Royal Arch Chapter of Masons has been organized at Roseburg. It is called Umpqua Chapter, and Thos. H. Cox is H. P., A. G. Brown K., and S. P. Bunnell is Scribe.

The ministers and saloon keepers of Salem held a meeting last week, in which the latter proposed to close their saloons on the Sabbath if other business men would do the same.

The Sheriff of Marion county was out last Saturday looking for a man supposed to be crazy, who was seen wandering around a graveyard east of Salem. He was not found.

It is said by parties living near the summit that snow has not been so deep for years this late in the season as it is now. At Abrams' mill, only a few miles from Eugene City, it is about four feet deep.

Captain Coffin of The Dalles is the man who introduced the famous Chinese knife throwers and jugglers in the United States in 1872, and it was his uncle, an old sea captain, who brought the Siamese Twins from Siam to the United States.

Mr John W. Kelly has severed his connection with the Roseburg Plaindealer. In bidding good bye to his patrons he says: "Financially the venture has not been the success my smallest hopes anticipated; otherwise I make no complaints."

[illegible], an Indian about thirty years old, living on the Umatilla reservation, sold two hundred horses, receiving therefor $6,000 in coin. Soon after he lost fifteen hundred horses by gambling with another noble red man of the forest. &c.

We have received the first number of the Eastern Oregon Weekly Tribune, published at Pendleton, Umatilla county, by M. H. Abbott, who is well known to the reading public in Oregon as a newspaper man. The Tribune is a very good looking and readable paper. Barring its patent outside, it will be found interesting to the people of its locality.

According to the Statesman, property in Jefferson must be declining. That paper says: "Property has been changing hands lately at ruinous figures. That the Beaver Hosiery Co., incorporated at $12,000, sold for $5,000. Conser's house, which two years ago sold for $2,000, was to-day purchased for $520. B. Van Buren's property, purchased a few years ago for $1,600, has been sold for $800."

According to the report of the Superintendent of Schools, there is in Polk county 1,038 voters, [illegible] persons of school age, 974 pupils enrolled, average attendance in public schools, [illegible]; attending private schools, 98; attending no school, [illegible]; whole amount paid to school teachers during the year $6,827 25; value of school property, $1,126. The number of teachers employed was 36, and number of quarters taught 60½. Mr J C Grubbs is the County Superintendent.

The Salem Statesman of last Friday says: "A trial was commenced in the Circuit Court yesterday wherein the plaintiff, John Rogers, sues the Oregon and California Railroad Company for $20,000, which he claims to be the amount of damage sustained by him in being dumped out of one of said company's coaches when the same ran off the track on a certain occasion. A compromise was effected this morning by the company agreeing to pay $3,000 and the costs of suit."

At the last term of the Circuit Court in Marion county, Charles Miller was tried under an indictment for shooting one Slater near Jefferson, and the jury being unable to agree at that trial, the case went over to the present term, and after a second trial, which lasted two days, the jury brought in a verdict of not guilty and the defendant was discharged. The shooting occurred over a settlement involving two dollars and a half, which Miller owed Slater, and out of which the entire difficulty grew.

The Daily Oregonian.

MONDAY MORNING MARCH 16 1874

JUSTLY INDIGNANT

A correspondent at Dallas says that the community almost without exception are outspoken in their condemnation of the removal of Postmaster Hobart. He was a faithful officer and although he had been watched by the spies of the Hipple Holladay faction for a long time nothing could be found upon which to found the least objection to his retention in office except the one of [illegible] his other duties must be performed to the best [illegible] whether it was agreeable to the ring or not. Such conduct as this being violative of the main plank of the Hipple faction's platform which requires the subordination of all other things to the success of the faction Hipple was informed of the nonconformity of Postmaster Hobart to the requirement of the peculiar [illegible]. This he considered sufficient ground for removal and off went the head of the conscientious officer—the way nearly all have done in this State who have refused to prostitute their offices to the use of the ring. The result is the universal indignation of the people of this section. A petition for the reinstatement of Hobart was put into circulation a day or two ago and in a very short time 152 persons had signed it, including nearly every person to whom it was presented. Our correspondent says if the unanimous sentiment of the community can have any weight at Washington Mr Hobart will certainly be reappointed. This appears to us, in the light of events transpiring almost daily, to be rather a weak staff to lean upon, but we should be glad to find that it is strong enough for the occasion.

THE OTHER SIDE

In order to counteract the independent movement in Linn county a few members of the two "straightout" rings at Albany have been going around secretly to persons who signed the call, and representing to them that they had been deceived and their signatures procured by fraud, and thereby inducing them to sign a recantation or remonstrance. And a correspondent of the State Rights Democrat made the same charge against the Independent movement, which had the effect of calling out from another correspondent of the same paper the following

> In his correspondence are found assertions, which if true would have a direful effect upon the movement, and several persons have already had their names enrolled on a remonstrance setting forth that they were beguiled in the matter by designing politicians of the Republican party who were endeavoring to trap Democrats and thereby use them for their own aggrandizement, and that Luther Elkins D W Ballard and others of Albany, "of the Oregonian persuasion, were the prime movers in this matter having secretly schemed this new departure.' But, as I said they were assertions. I profess to know sufficient of the movement to be able with proof to deny those charges, and will say to the voters of Linn county that Luther Elkins, D. W. Ballard and others of Albany had no hand in getting up this movement but that those allegations, made without foundation are only electioneering schemes, asserted and reported to bias the minds of the community, and thwart the desires of the laboring voters of the county by the office seeker and his co-workers

No doubt this is the exact truth of the case. If you wish to find the people who believe the independent movement should be discouraged by all means, look among those who have always held or sought office at the hands of party organizations, and those whose political principles set so lightly upon them that they can easily change from side to side according to the prospects of getting office in one or the other party.

THE RIGHT SORT OF CANDIDATES

One of the most prominent and reliable business men of Polk county, in a postscript to a private letter, says of the ticket nominated by the Tax-payers' Convention in that county

> They are almost without exception men of good morals who stand above reproach in the community where they live. With such men on such a platform as adopted at our Convention, we are sure to win in the coming election. Some of the candidates on the Democratic ticket are good men but they see the 'hand writing on the wall,' and tremble as one did of old, for they know that it was the people who wrote it.
> TAX PAYER

"Men of good morals, and who stand above reproach in the community where they live." That is the sort of men to elect if you expect honesty in official conduct. We have all along insisted that private morals, personal, individual integrity in private life is the only true criterion by which to judge the men to be selected for public life, and it is a radical departure from the hitherto prevalent party idea, when a nominating Convention applies this test in seeking men, to be its standard-bearers. We do not believe a single case can be pointed out in which a man whose personal morals were notoriously bad, has made a faithful and conscientious public servant.

DOWN THE RIVER

On a visit to Astoria last week, we were agreeably surprised at the manifest increase of business at that place and along the river above. The salmon fisheries of the Columbia had already grown into one of the most important industries of the northwest coast, but the increase of their capacity for operations, and the addition of new establishments, since last season, have been far greater than we had supposed. All along the river, from Rainier down large canning houses are located at short intervals, some of them just entering upon the business, and others already extensive but making large additions. At Astoria a corporation has been organized, with ample capital stock, and has erected a first class canning establishment at that place. Should the salmon catch this season be no less than usual in proportion to the number of men and amount of capital employed the product of this branch of business will be nearly or quite double what it was last year.

There is a very decided improvement in the general aspect of affairs about the mouth of the river. The growth of one branch of business naturally imparts spirit to other branches, and thus the whole community feels the stimulus. Astoria is not a fast city, but it goes along at a steady jog and—what is of equal importance—it never goes back.

What should we do if we had to rely on the ring organs to define our political status? The organs of the Republican ring declare the Oregonian is laboring for the success of the Democratic party and the organs of the Democratic ring as stoutly insist that we are secretly scheming for the success of the Republicans. Here comes the Albany Democrat's correspondent for instance who warns Democrats of Linn county that the independent movement in that county is a plan gotten up and being managed by the Republicans of the Oregonian [illegible] place Republicans in power in that ancient stronghold of Democracy. Will gentlemen [illegible] afford you any amusement with their [illegible] we [illegible] objection. In fact it is not our quarrel but you will find at last we have been telling the simple plain [illegible] truth when we have been saying that we regarded the welfare of the young State and the prosperity of her industrious people as paramount to all parties and that without yielding one iota of our Republicanism, we should consult the paramount interests in preference to those of mere party organization. It will be cold comfort either [illegible] rings will receive from the Oregonian [illegible] between the parties.

The New York Judge before whom the Woodhull was tried for the disgusting and infamous publication on which Challis' suit for libel was based was undoubtedly justified by the evidence in characterizing the verdict of acquittal as one of the most outrageous he had ever heard. Some of the evidence has already reached us quite enough to make any one who has a decent regard for good morals regret the escape of these vile [illegible]. In her testimony the Woodhull openly declared that she had no respect for the sanctity of marriage. Challis testified that the sisters had frequently levied blackmail on him and he produced the letter in evidence. The action of the jury is thoroughly disreputable but it is no more than could reasonably be expected from twelve New York jurors perhaps.

"Take care of the Civil Rights Bill," were the last words of dying Sumner. The welfare of the emancipated race was the object of his most tender solicitude and it is gratifying to see the colored people of the whole country rising up to do him honor. The proceedings of a meeting held by the colored citizens of Portland attest a warm gratitude and affection for the dead statesman which is greatly to their credit. Similar meetings have been held in all parts of the United States.

In another column of this morning's paper appears a call for the nomination of District and county candidates irrespective of party. We are informed that in addition to the long list of signatures attached to this call other copies have received about three hundred and twenty signatures which have not yet been returned. This is certainly a formidable showing as well as a most flattering testimonial to the gentlemen designated as a nominating committee.

There is this danger in writing obituaries the obituarian is not always sure of his victim. This Henri Rochefort is still in New Caledonia awaiting with confidence such a change in French politics as will secure his return to Paris.

Two members have been added to the Howard Court of Inquiry, and the President has assigned Nelson A. Miles of the Fifth Infantry and George Getty of the Third Artillery, to that duty.

MILLARD FILLMORE

THE CLOSING SCENE IN AN EVENTFUL LIFE—HONORS TO HIS MEMORY

A Buffalo dispatch of the 8th instant says ex President Fillmore was conscious to the end. In reply to questions asked by his physician, he said that nourishment was palatable. Those were his last words. His death was painless. Immediately on receipt of the intelligence of his death, President Grant issued the following proclamation

EXECUTIVE MANSION
WASHINGTON, March 8 1874

It is with deep regret the President announces to the people of the United States the death of Millard Fillmore, one of his honored predecessors who died at Buffalo last evening. The long-continued public services and eminent purity of character of the deceased President will be remembered beyond the days of mourning in which the nation will be thrown by the event which is thus announced. As a mark of respect to his memory, it is ordered that the Executive Mansion and the several Departments at Washington be draped in mourning until the close of the day on which the funeral will take place and that business will be suspended on the day of the funeral. It is also ordered that the War and Navy Departments cause suitable military and naval honors to be paid on the occasion to the memory of the eminent citizen whose life is now closed.

U S GRANT, President

From a report of the proceedings of Congress on the 9th inst, we take the annexed

At the opening of the Senate Fenton referred to the news of the death of ex President Fillmore and moved the Senate adjourn as mark of respect to the illustrious dead.

Sherman was willing to adjourn if there was any precedent for such action. He was not unwilling to set a precedent for he had the greatest respect and admiration for the character of Fillmore.

The Chair Carpenter and Anthony cited the adjournment of the Senate on the death of Buchanan and on the death of Gen Washington. The motion to adjourn was then carried unanimously.

In the House Dawes announced the death of ex President Fillmore, saying the death of a man who has held such an exalted position in public and private life made it the duty of the House to arrest its further proceedings and take some proper action on such an event.

Mr Cox moved the following resolution

The House having received with becoming sensibility and sorrow intelligence of the death of Millard Fillmore, ex President, at Buffalo New York, on the 8th, does hereby resolve First That the members of the House of which he was once a distinguished member and leader unite in honoring his name [illegible] character and the superior ability and patriotism with which he illustrated his public career and the dignity which marked the later years of his life. Second That as a token of honor of the memory of the public and private [illegible] of the illustrious statesman whose death in a ripe old age has arrested the attention of all the Speaker of this House [illegible] appoint a committee of [illegible] member to attend the funeral of Fillmore on behalf of the House and communicate a copy of these resolutions to the relatives of deceased, his widow and the public.

The resolutions were agreed to and [illegible] a committee consisting of Cox Dawes Maynard Tyner Wells and Daniell.

The House then adjourned.

In the Senate of California on the 9th inst, Mr Duffy offered the following resolution which was adopted. Resolved That when the Senate adjourn this day it do so out of respect to that great and good man Millard Fillmore ex President of the United States.

The Supreme Court of the United States adjourned at an early hour out of respect to the memory of the deceased statesman.

SHE SAYS HE POISONED HER.—A [illegible] Penn dispatch of February 22 says [illegible] M Mangal was arrested at Bloomville Seneca county Ohio yesterday on a warrant sworn out by his wife, charging him with attempting to poison her on two different occasions once by putting strychnine into her coffee and again by giving her some candy sprinkled with the same poison. He asserts his innocence and accounts for the poisoning of the candy by saying it had been carried in his pocket with some strychnine purchased for killing rats. They had been married but a short time.

STICKEEN MINES.

We have kindly been permitted to make the following extracts from a private letter written by J L Mackintosh to Mr [illegible] of this city The former gentleman started for the Stickeen mines some time ago He says

I arrived at Fort Wrangel in safety on the 1st of February and remained over one day at that place On the 3d I landed on the ice and spent a very cold disagreeable night as we camped in deep snow which was alternately freezing and thawing February the 4th we moved our camp about 6 miles up the river where we spent a much colder night On the 5th we traveled about [illegible] miles after a terrible hard day's work I broke through the ice several times during the day and went up to my waist but managed to crawl out safely Several men also repeated my example When we reached a camping spot we were completely exhausted with a day's hardship The following day (6th) we moved our camp and provisions about 4 miles ahead and then went back to our camp There were over 100 men camped within a few miles of us—several of whom had frozen toes On the 7th we traveled about 4 miles and camped We came on to a number of Russians who were engaged in freighting They gave us the encouraging(?) information that a number of men who came on the boat a month in advance of ourselves were only about 8 miles ahead of us February 8th we advanced a few miles and went back to our former camp The following day we moved our grub and blankets several miles ahead and came back to camp On the 9th, we broke up camp and went up to where the provisions were cached On the 10th we traveled about 5 miles and camped Feb 11th we moved the grub and blankets about 4 miles ahead and went back to camp To-day we met an expressman from Buck's Bar who says it is good traveling all the way up Where we are camped now is at Big Bend which is said to be the coldest place along the route The expressman says we are about 15 miles from the mouth of the river Between 60 and 70 men are ahead of us the furthest not being to exceed 30 miles ahead From our present camping ground up to the mines we shall make good time at least so says the expressman All the men who are ahead of us are loaded much lighter We were compelled to cut down our sleds to 18 inches wide on the bottom They are all too heavy and clumsy Those made at Wrinhart's are much better than the rest; but sleds are preferable to the toboggans Thus far we have had a very rough time of it I give you these items about the sleds for the benefit of those who contemplate coming to the mines on the March boat My advice to those who intend to come is that they had better wait until the river opens By dividing our loads as we have been doing, the expressman says he thinks it will require from 12 to 13 days for us to reach Buck's Bar We can pick up plenty of grub along the road so far, that has been thrown away by those who have preceded us but the general opinion is that provisions will be distressingly scarce before long Flour is now worth 30 cents a pound at Buck's Bar

Mr Vanderbilt purser on the California has laid us under obligations for additional information concerning these mines

At present there are only about 25 men at Fort Wrangel—that is prior to the time the California arrived there on her downward trip The steamer brought down from Sitka to Wrangel 40 Indians 11 Russians and two Americans—all bearing Stickeenward Sylvester the expressman, left Fort Wrangel on the 5th inst for the mines with all the letters, etc which were there on that date He expected to be able to reach his destination on the ice which still covers the river

It is estimated that there are about 27,000 pounds of provisions at the mines which have been transported over the snow and ice on sleds toboggans and the backs of Indians

Great excitement still exists at Sitka and Wrangel about the richness of these mines Nearly every one has the fever and the prospects are flattering for a grand rush this spring

Mr Vanderbilt is in receipt of a letter written by Mr Chapman, of East Portland under date of the 11th ult The writer left Fort Wrangel on the 2d of February Up to the time the letter was penned—nine days—the party of which he was a member had only reached a point on the river 39 miles above the mouth which would average 4½ miles per day Mr Chapman states that the snow, during the distance he had traveled ranged from 3 to 6 feet in depth but he did not find the weather as severe as he had been led to suppose

TEMPERANCE PRAYER MEETING.

Last evening the audience room of the Taylor street M E Church was literally a jam of humanity on the occasion of the Union Temperance Prayer Meeting announcement to be held Over a thousand persons were present the aisles were crowded and even many were compelled to go away Every possible provision was made to accommodate the immense audience which came pouring in Chairs and benches were brought up from the vestry and placed about the large room until every available nook and corner was occupied but notwithstanding these efforts it was found impracticable to provide seats for all Scarcely ever has Portland witnessed a more intense public interest than has been awakened in behalf of any movement since the present crusade against the cause of intemperance was inaugurated in this city The exercises began last evening with the singing of a devotional hymn followed with prayer offered by Rev Mr Medbury Rev G H Atkinson read a lesson from the Scriptures which was followed by the announcement of the usual church appointments for the coming week by Rev Mr [illegible] Rev Mr Eaton [illegible] arose and stated to the audience the reason why the Rev Dr Lindsley was not present [illegible] but notwithstanding his unavoidable absence his heart and soul was in the good cause and his earnest prayers were for its triumph Short, earnest and enthusiastic addresses were made by Revs Atkinson Medbury and Eaton who urged in the most cogent terms the awakening of public interest in the great vital subject of intemperance, pointing out its terrible dangers and exhorting firm persistent and united warfare against its giant inroads on the sanctity of the home circle the health [illegible] and morality of the young men Rev Mr [illegible] then read a telegraphic dispatch from the ladies of [illegible] Ohio which was received yesterday in response to one sent several days since by a number of ladies of Portland The [illegible] of Portland [illegible] It was then [illegible] [illegible] during the evening [illegible] should be set apart [illegible] as a day of prayer and fasting [illegible] will be held to-day at the [illegible] the basement of the [illegible] Church to which all are cordially invited [illegible] evening a temperance prayer meeting will be held in the audience room of the [illegible] to which the public are [illegible] invited

AMUSEMENTS.

The third rendition of the Color Guard, at Oro Fino Theater under the auspices of the members of the Grand Army of the Republic on Saturday evening was beyond doubt the most successful amateur performance ever given in Portland both in respect to the numbers in attendance and the manner in which the drama was put on the stage The several performers completely vindicated their merit of the praise which was bestowed upon them by those who had previously witnessed them in the same role As non professionals, we cannot well accord too much merit to the true dramatic taste evinced by Mr Sears as Louis Ludlow, and Mr Taylor as Bob Mason—two leading male characters and to Miss Minnie Welsh Miss Alice Morgan and Mrs Ford who took the principal lady characters while Major Woodward Messrs De Lashmutt Oatman, Yates Borthwick, Lyans Beardsley Ryan May, Reynolds, Hansen and Miss Emma Garette though sustaining less prominent parts, displayed a decided talent in the effective rendition of the several characters which they represented But the characters which give most life to the piece and serve to relieve the seriousness which will naturally impress one from constantly watching the weary hard life of the soldier are those of Peter Higley a genuine specimen from the Rhine and Tom Flinn a wild roving covey from Erin's bogs The former was sustained by our friend C M Brown the latter by Mr T L Newport and we can hardly do justice to their inimitable personations, every appearance of which brought down the house Brown's rendition of the burlesque on "Sheridan's Ride entitled Charley Knowles Flight from the Woman Crusaders" was certainly highly appreciated by the thunders of applause which it elicited from the entire audience Komikal Krosbie will have to look to his laurels when Brown quits taking weather observations and takes to the stage Mr Smith also deserves especial notice for the truthfulness to nature with which he represented the colored man in the drama "Washington Loney" By special request of many citizens the play will be repeated this evening and we can assure the public that it will pay to witness it

IN MEMORIAM

MASS MEETING OF THE COLORED CITIZENS OF PORTLAND ON THE OCCASION OF THE DEATH OF HON CHARLES SUMNER

Pursuant to a call made on receipt of the sad news of the death of the late Hon Charles Sumner of Massachusetts a mass meeting of the colored citizens of Portland was held in the A M E Zion Church on Friday evening March 13th to express their sentiments of grief and condolence at the great loss which the American people have sustained in the brilliant statesman and the colored citizens in their true and devoted friend

The meeting was called to order by Mr Simmons who stated the object which had brought them together and concluding with a few brief remarks [illegible] upon the honored dead

On motion Mr [illegible] P [illegible] was called to preside as permanent Chairman and M A [illegible] as Secretary

Mr Riley on taking the Chair [illegible] the meeting in well chosen and eloquent remarks [illegible] the deceased statesman

The [illegible] Rev A P S[illegible] offered fervent prayer at the conclusion of Mr Riley's tribute to the [illegible] lamented

On motion a committee of seven was appointed by the Chair to draft suitable resolutions expressive of the [illegible] meeting As such committee the following persons were appointed [illegible] Simmons Wm Brown C H Mercier W H Hunter N [illegible] Chas Be[illegible] M A [illegible]

Pending the absence of the Committee the meeting was addressed by Messrs George P Riley Capt Alex Ferguson Wm Williams Rev A B Smith and others

The interior of the church being appropriately draped in honor of the dead statesman it was resolved that the same be continued and that colored citizens be required to wear the usual badge of mourning for thirty days

The Committee on Resolutions returning presented the following preamble and resolutions which were unanimously adopted

WHEREAS, In the dispensation of Divine Providence before which nations and men alike must bow it has pleased the Almighty to gather to his bosom our nation's most eminent orator and statesman—patriot [illegible] proudest champion and the colored Americans [illegible] friend [illegible] the late Hon Chas Sumner United States Senator from Massachusetts and

WHEREAS, The honored dead embraced [illegible] of his life the [illegible] equal and exact justice to all men as the foundation of true national greatness integrity of mind and rectitude of morals as the richest crown in which the dignity of man can be clothed [illegible] the country he [illegible] the galaxy of nations as the beacon of civilization the asylum of the oppressed of all nations and the [illegible] for his every purpose to the glittering [illegible] even of royal [illegible] the [illegible] earned gratitude of the weak and defenceless to the imperial purple of a kingly robe therefore

Resolved That in the death of the Hon Charles Sumner the American nation has lost her most brilliant orator and statesman patriotism her proudest champion and the colored Americans their staunchest and most devoted friend

Resolved That the Republican party and the world has lost the most faithful and pure exponent of the principles involving equal and exact justice to all men—the only true foundation of national greatness

Resolved That for his talent we admired him for his devotion to and defense of the right we loved him and for his untiring labors in the cause of humanity [illegible] monument of gratitude in our hearts [illegible] memory

Resolved That we earnestly ask our Representative in Congress and United States Senators as a just appreciation of the closing labors of his useful life to pass Sumner's Supplementary Civil Rights Bill, or one embodying kindred principles and thereby crown his [illegible] in part with the laurels he had so nobly won

Resolved That the Portland papers be requested to publish the foregoing preamble and resolutions and a copy be sent to the National Era and [illegible] Washington D C and the Elevator San Francisco

The meeting then adjourned with doxology and benediction

MONDAY MORNING MARCH 16 1874

WASHINGTON COUNTY

HOW THE RING ARE TRYING TO CULL THE PEOPLE—A HOLLADAY ORGAN RUNS WITH THE HARE AND BARKS WITH THE HOUNDS

Hillsboro March 12 1874

Editor of the Oregonian

I am not a politician and have no distaste [illegible] ally for meddling in affairs where the people, heretofore have been the ones concerned have only been the [illegible] that furnishes the food for ricks [illegible] wire pullers and Pretenders, and consumers of the widow's mite to ride into power. But the people have thrown off the shackles of submission and have come boldly out [illegible] and have announced their determination to submit no longer to the manipulations of professional office-seekers railroad rings or combinations of all classes who are identified with corruptionists. No sooner had this call been put forth than the cry along the entire line like the babbling of many waters was to go in with it and shape its destiny and so assiduously have they worked with all the appliances known to the fraternity of demagogues that many honest men of both parties have been led to doubt their own ability to elect anyone or make any change as contemplated in the affairs of county or State. And that the people may understand what is going on I will call to mind one of their chief stocks in trade. The Progressionist whose editor is only a deck hand on the railroad ship professedly avows the cause of the people yet anyone who has read his article on that subject can clearly see that he has given no pledge to stand by the people. He dare not do it, but leaves a loophole in the shape of that bastard "if" to crawl out at. Nor has he ever intended to give a pledge for unconditional support. And while the people are led to believe that he is at least friendly there is not an office seeker in the county that is in full sympathy with the railroad there is not even a track walker on the road, but what is using his every effort to break up the movement, by going to the Democrats and telling them that "the Corbett men are making their boast that they will take all the offices." Then they will go to the other side and tell the same thing about the Democrats going to bolt unless they get the lion's share at the same time urging the Republicans and Democrats to keep up their organizations. These are facts which all should consider, and wherever they are met with should be frowned down. These peddlers and falsifiers, sent out to cheat the people of their rights, should be given to understand that once the masses will to do a thing that all the power on earth cannot deter them. Efficiency honesty of purpose a will to do, and an unswerving fidelity to the rights of the people are the qualifications sought for, and it matters not what party a man has heretofore belonged to, so that he possesses these necessary endowments.

In conclusion, I will ask the people of Washington county Shall old party prejudice be put aside? Will the people stand shoulder to shoulder and fight for their rights as a people, or shall they dream on while the very bread is taken from the mouths of their families?

I have confidence in the people of Washington county. The same spirit that grappled with the plank road swindle in an early day that overthrew the $50,000 load saddled on the county and people by the railroad will not further submit to high crimes stalking abroad in open day their farms cut up by unnecessary roads to gratify a clique, the hard earnings of the farm and shop appropriated without regard to law or rights, to the keeping up of a class of idlers and public bummers who have fastened themselves upon the public treasury with the tenacity of a leech.

NOT A GRANGER

THE GREAT TEMPERANCE MOVEMENT

The New York Christian Advocate says

Hundreds of liquor dealers have yielded to the pressure—some readily, others reluctantly, and only after the inauguration of a thorough siege. Not a few of the "converted dealers" joined energetically in helping on the great work. In one town, where the dealers issued a placard peremptorily ordering the ladies away and threatening them with a suit for damages for interfering with their business, the ladies responded announcing as their watchwords, "Peace, persuasion, prayer and asking that their reply might be received in the kindly manner in which they dictated it. They said

Gentlemen You threaten us. We answer in the kindness of our hearts. You warn us to cease praying and singing in the vicinity of your saloons, because as you suggest, it causes a loss of money to you. Permit us to answer by saying it is you who are destroying our property consuming our resources interfering with our peace, sapping our health blocking up our sidewalks and streets with your drunken men and putting us to tens of thousands of dollars expense to punish the criminals you make.

The response was successful its kindness and earnestness conquered the foe. Whole towns have been cleared of the traffic.

There is rejoicing in the army of attack.

The Methodist calls the movement, "Woman's Temperance Movement" and thus speaks of it

One of the most promising features of the proceedings is the energy and determination with which they are conducted. "Ordinarily," says one account, "the exercises are begun at 9 o'clock in the morning and continued until 10 o'clock at night." At Hillsboro, O. one woman of ample means says she has laid by $20,000 for the purpose of seeing the crusade through, and others are said to be "just as ready and liberal according to their means." At London, O. two organizations have been formed, one of women and one of men, which are intended to be permanent. One of the leaders in the movement at this place says it is their intention to hold themselves in readiness to march at any moment if it is three years from now, and that the only signal for action necessary will be a drunken man.

In the course of his remarks at the grand mass meeting of business men held at the Merchants Exchange in San Francisco a few days ago Alexander Austin Tax-Collector made the following statement

I can state to this large assemblage though many know it that a year ago viz the fiscal year of 1872 and 1873 the tax levy was $4 000 000 due at the same time on the last days of December and it was asserted for a positive fact that there was not $4 000 000 in town in circulation. How was the Tax Collector to collect the taxes of $4 000 000 and those $4 000 000 not in town? I adopted the check system for the sake of collecting the taxes. I took in the money as slowly as I could and the city got it, the city dispersed it and the identical money deposited with the Treasurer came out again and paid other taxes three or four times and that is the way that was paid

The Commissioner of Internal Revenue states that the aggregate amount of internal revenue collected from September 1862 when the internal revenue law went into effect to the 28th of February 1874 is $1 792 [illegible] 000. Of this amount there are due from the late Collectors $[illegible] for the recovery of which suits have been commenced

A Rare Chance for a Good Physician.

AS MY HEALTH IS IN SUCH A CONDITION that I cannot endure the exposure and hardship consequent upon country practice, I offer to sell my residence situated in Hillsboro the County Seat of Washington County Oregon upon the most reasonable terms with a good practice thrown in, the extent of which may be ascertained by addressing the undersigned or examining his books personally.

The property consists of lots 98x200 feet each enclosed with a picket fence and sidewalk in front located on Main st. Hillsboro, 1 block from the Court House with a good dwelling house office and barn also a never failing well of water bricked in and various fruit trees and vines growing thriftily. All of which I will sell for $1000 [illegible] cash or one half cash and the remaining half on one year's credit with 1 per cent interest secured by mortgage.

Title guaranteed

I will also sell a No 1 Saddle Horse, with Saddle, Bridle and Saddlebags together with Household Furniture (if desired) at a greatly reduced price.

Hillsboro is situated in one of the most wealthy farming localities in the State and has a population of about 400 inhabitants and has a railroad running through the place. There is but one practising Physician in the place excepting myself, and giving as much business as both can do.

My object for selling is as above stated and for the purpose of commencing city practice. Any good Physician wishing a good country practice cannot find a better place and will do well to call and see for himself or address me for any information. Address as above

Probable Abolition of the Moiety System

CHICAGO March 13.—A W[illegible] special says it has been represented [illegible] that the Ways and Means Committee [illegible] modify existing laws than rather [illegible] unconditional repeal but the fact [illegible] Committee has unanimously instructed [illegible] of its members to bring in a bill repealing every vestige of the law under which Sanborn, Jayne and others operated. It will probably be reported to the House this week and there is no doubt whatever of its passage. Sanborn is here and desires that the law be so modified as to reduce the percentage of moieties but the disposition of the House is in favor of the abolition of the moiety business both in the excise and the custom laws

PUGET SOUND NOTES

A gentleman who is just from along the Sound places us in possession of the following items of interest

Business on the Sound is very quiet. mills mostly running on short time but they are looking for better times ahead. Later in the season leading mill owners look for a change

Three men left Tacoma for the Yakima mines last week

The steamer North Pacific made the run from Victoria to Tacoma, 115 miles direct course in the unequaled short time of 7 hours running time. J. M. Starr came over on her. Reached Portland from Victoria in less than 24 hours making all the stops on the N. P. R. R., and on the Columbia river

The new water works at Tacoma (new town) has just been completed furnishing pure water from a gurgling spring which flows from the distant hills ample for ordinary and steamboat supplies

A staunch earth and timber bulkhead along the face of the hills parallel to the railroad track bars all slides of soft soil in the vicinity

By the low rates of freight over the N. P. R. R. to the Sound many shippers forward that way

Since the completion of the wharf at Tacoma two new stores and commission houses have been completed at the end of the track near the railroad hotel. A new ticket office and the completion of other improvements in and around the wharf and hotel will add to the convenience of transfers from steamers to the cars or vice versa.

Capt Ainsworth and General Sprague went over to Tacoma on the train Saturday. It is supposed on business pertaining to the interests of the railroad

The steamer Alida Capt Parker alternates from Tacoma and Olympia then from Tacoma to Seattle

After making her remarkably quick run from Victoria to Tacoma the steamer North Pacific goes for the present on her regular route until further notice

The hotel on the wharf at Tacoma is about as large and complete a structure as we often see within this northern country
